

Anna Haebich is a multi-award winning scholar known for her innovative cross-cultural approaches to research. Her work addresses histories of Aboriginal peoples and ethnic minorities and visual, material and performance cultures. Anna is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of the Social Sciences and the Australian Academy of Humanities. She is currently a John Curtin Distinguished Professor at Curtin University in Perth, Western Australia. Anna's current projects include a Cultural history of Noongar performing arts; Oral histories of Carrolup Aboriginal child artists; Ancestors words - a history of Noongar letter writing in the archive 1860-1960; and Strategies for decolonizing colonial botanical collections. Anna's partner is Darryl Kickett, Noongar Nation Elder.