PSI VIII 955: Exit κελλικάριος

In SPP VIII 1000,4 and in P.Herm.Rees 29 (= SB VI 9278),<sup>6</sup> and verso the word κελλαρικάριος<sup>1</sup> occurs. Quite a few words based on Latin cella are known (cf. Daris, op.cit., 52-53).<sup>2</sup> S. Daris (Il lessico, 52 and Spoglio II 330 = 807) and LSJ<sup>9</sup> s.v. list only from PSI VIII 955,13 the word κελλικάριος (for κελλαρικάριος. Cf. also LSJ<sup>9</sup> Supplement s.v.). Inspection of the original<sup>3</sup> revealed that κελλικάριος is a ghost-word. The Florentine papyrus has in line 13 clearly κελλαρικαρ = κελλαρικαρ(ίφ).<sup>4</sup> For κελλαρικάριος, see P.Herm. Rees 29,6n.

<sup>2</sup> A distinction should be made between κελλαρικόν and κελλαρικά (cf. P.Laur. IV 184,1n.). S. Daris, Spoglio lessicale papirologico II, Milano 1968, 329 (= 806) assembles under κελλαρικός (!) both κελλαρικόν and κελλαρικά. In WB, Supplement 2, Wiesbaden 1991, τὰ κελλαρικά in P.Oxy. XXXIV 2732,4 is also – wrongly – listed under κελλαρικός.

<sup>3</sup> I wish to thank Rosario Pintaudi who provided me with a photograph of the Florentine papyrus.

<sup>4</sup> Read in line 1 of PSI VIII 955: Ἀναστ]ασίφ ἰπ[πο]τρ[ό]φ(φ) λ[όγ(φ) ἀναλ(ώματος)]. Of a total of seven fragments of this papyrus the editors published only five fragments as PSI VIII 955. For the sake of completeness I publish the remaining two, very incomplete fragments here.

Fragment 6 (3.5 x 8 cm.)	Fragment 7 (6.5 x 12 cm.)
— — — — — traces	— — — — — τοῖ[ς
] .ωγχ( ) λόγφ ἀν[αλ(ώματος)	Κοσμῆ [
] .νᾶ καὶ κανονι[κ	Πέτρφ [
4 ] τοῦ Παῦνι μη(νὸς) [	4 Κυπρία [
? πεμφ]θέντ(α) αὐτ(ῶ) ἀπὸ Ἀλ[εξανδρείας ?	Ἰωάννη [
] τοῦ κύρ[ου ] [	Μηνῆ ορν[
	Ἵμετίφ [

Fragment 6 seems to be complete at the bottom. Supplement in the lacuna at the beginning of line 4 perhaps λόγφ ἀναλ(ώματος) (cf. PSI VIII 955,33) and in the one at the beginning of line 6 ἐκ κελ(εύσεως) τοῦ δεσπό(του) ἡμῶν (cf. ibidem, 6).

Fragment 7 is complete at the bottom. 2.5 cm. to the left of Κοσμῆ (κοσμαρ pap.) we still read of a previous column: ὄξ(ους) δι(πλᾶ) ρ. Κυπρία (line 4) is only seldom attested. In line 6 perhaps ὀρν[ιθῆ? Ἵμετίος in line 7 is a new proper name.
